 Defendants. *

TO THE HONORABLE; THE JUDGES OF SAID COURT:

The answer of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, a body corporate, one of the Defendants in the above entitled cause, respectfully represents unto this Honorable Court as follows:

1. That it does not have actual knowledge of all of the allegations of said Bill of Complaint but it has been reliably advised that all of the allegations of said Bill of Complaint are substantially true but respectfully requests that the usual proof be produced to substantiate the allegations of the Plaintiff's Bill of Complaint in this cause.

2. Further answering said Bill of Complaint, this Defendant says that it is reliably advised and therefore believes that there is nothing due it on the judgment first set out and mentioned in the fourth paragraph of said Plaintiff's Bill of Complaint, as a judgment of the Commercial State Bank Vs. Grayson Stull and Annie Stull, his wife, in the principal sum of Twenty seven hundred dollars ($2700.00), dated October 11, 1923 and being designated as 170 Trials, September Term, 1923, in the law side of this Honorable Court, and recorded in Transcript docket No. 19, at folio 447, but that there is due this Defendant, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, a balance on the principal, in the amount of $1582.75 together with interest thereon at the rate of 6% per annum, from the 9th day of March, 1942, as well as all Court costs and Attorneys commissions as will appear by the certified copy of said judgment heretofore filed in this cause, on account of the judgment secondly set out in said paragraph four of said Bill of Complaint, being the judgment mentioned in said
